

Jake (3). Despite the quietness and remoteness that surrounds her Gillian is very happy. And her fondness of animals especially horses still exists. Besides Copper who she still rides daily there is her Afghan dog "Lucy" sheepdog "Ben" cat "Andromena" and chicken and pigeons. There is very little to do otherwise. In Hindolveston stands a church, a school, a pub and a grocer. Twice a week there is a bus to Norwich, the nearest city. There's nothing more to do. Gillian met her husband while filming at Follyfoot farm, but there was no love yet. He played a minor part in a episode. Later they met each other again while playing in Coventry in "How the other half loves" and fell in love. Nowadays the Whitbreads grow their vegetables, and when Peter is not acting or writing he is making furniture. Gillian makes curtains and trousers for Jake. Once in a while she still has a yearning for the stage. For the first time since the end of filming Follyfoot she has been in the lamplight again. In the well known TV show "This is your life" with the actor Arthur English all actors of Follyfoot were back again. Only Copper was too afraid to come to the studio.
